Dear PCA Family,

As per our previous alert, today's basketball game WILL BE HELD as scheduled. Players should plan to arrive by 4:30pm.

A well drilling company has been working with us through the day to assess our situation, diagnose mechanical failures, formulate solutions, and make necessary repairs to our well.

As expected, though mechanical failures have been identified, all repair work cannot be completed today. As a result, school will be cancelled Tuesday (12/5) to allow for these final repairs to be made.

It is our understanding that this work will be completed in total on Tuesday, allowing us to resume school on Wednesday. Nonetheless, we will continue to notify you of developments through BCR/Facebook alerts and postings to our website.

Thank you for your patience as we seek swift and sound solutions to this unexpected development.

We are grateful to God for His goodness, and welcome your continued prayer for wisdom and grace, to His glory and our ultimate satisfaction in Him.

Because of Christ,

Steve Lunger
Principal, PCA
